December 9th –

KGV Christmas Fair

KGV's first 'Christmas Fair' was held together with the Christmas carol concert which took place on the field. The event was a huge success!

The PTSA organised food stalls for the event which was a total sell out!! The success of the stalls was due to the kind and generous contributions and participation of our helpful parents.

The PTSA would like to extend a Huge Thank You to all the parents who participated, volunteered their help, contributed food and/or funds for food purchase for the KGV Christmas fair food stalls on Friday 9 December 2011. Your effort and time spent in making the food, and helping at the stalls was highly appreciated and contributed hugely to the success of the fair. The delicious food was enjoyed by all.

These are the food stall that were held and we would like to thank.

-  Indian Food Stall
-  Chinese Food Stall
-  Japanese Food Stall
-  Thai Food Stall
-  Sausage Sizzle and Burgers Stall
-  Cakes and Bakes Stall
-  Mulled Wine & Minced Pies Stall

All the proceeds shall go to the KGV Development Fund.

Christmas Sausage Sizzle

The popular Christmas Sausage Sizzle was enjoyed by all students and teachers adding to the Christmas spirit!

Thank you very much to the sausage sizzle team of mums who volunteered their help and time to do the Barbeque.

A great way to celebrate Christmas at KGV!
