PTSA EVENTS

January 10th

'Stress Management' –parent seminar.

Liz Chamberlain, Director of the Samaritans gave a talk about stress and what pushes our buttons. Whether stress is necessary in our lives, does it affect everybody in the same way and hope to cope with it.

The talk was informative and well received by our parents who attended. Thank you very much to Liz for coming to our school to present this valuable talk.

January 19th

Chinese New Year Lunchtime Celebration

The PTSA celebrated Chinese New Year at KGV by selling Chinese lunch to our students and teachers kindly contributed by our parents. We also arranged a spectacular lion dance and student and teacher performances adding to the Chinese New Year spirit!

A huge thank you to our generous and helpful parents for contributing food, funds towards food purchase and volunteering their help for this event. Thank you to the Chinese department and our talented students for all the effort and time put into preparing these performances.

January 31

'THE EDGE' SAT program
introduction seminar

The Edge Learning Center was invited to KGV to hold a seminar introducing their SAT programs. A special discount shall be offered to KGV students on enrollment. This was attended by students and some parents.

If you require further information on SAT programs with 'The Edge', please contact Terrance Yao of KGV Careers department at 2760 6659.
